Grab Some Air

Awesome!!!

To The Class of 2006

It is wonderful to have
The memories in this book.
And as you get older
Please take another look.

When you think back
I hope it makes you smile.
You have touched my life
And not just for a while.

Each of you are special,
You are truly unique.
Live healthy lives–
Work hard for the goal you seek.

Change the world as we know it,
Find good in everyone.
Live life to the fullest
And save time for some fun.

Don't forget the friends you made
When you were here at MHS.
I will miss each one of you...
Class of 06–You're the Best!!

Fondly,
Jeanine Smith

Ms. Funder

Whenever there are tears to be shed
Or when you feel you might break, not bend
She always has the answers
Funder always has a hand to lend.
Willingly, happily
She'll be there for you Pushing you, like always to do the best you can do.

Thanks for everything in the past four years, Funder!

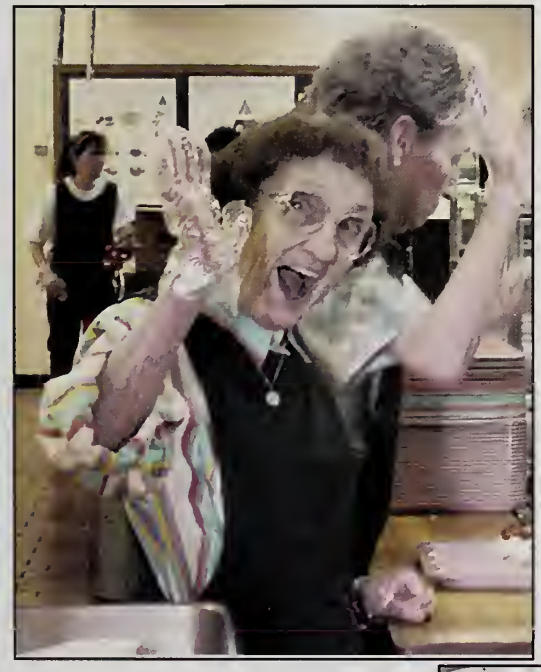
The Lunch Ladies



Ode to the Lunch Ladies

Yo Lunch lady, please slap a sloppy joe on my tray
You know every time I see you it makes my day.
Yo, crispy chicken or a nice teriyaki stick cuz you know you lunch laies are my number one pick.
Some green bean surprise, put some cheese on top
Keep pourin on the gravy until I say, "Stop."

4 years I've been eating and I never quit.
The café you ladies work at is supreme legit
Yo, you know what I'm about to say is true
Sometimes you'll see me at lunches 1, 5, and 2...
It's all because we love you.

Sonnet

I am hollow in the infinite sea
Of the gold of future and relics of past
But my gilded future is mere reverie
The remnants of yester devoid me of ballast
I waltz with the perpetual ticking clock
For no flower or pulp for my toils can I share
A bodiless entity, to the shadows I flock
The dearth of light is the fruit of my despair
But in the phosphorescence of the moment
Your vessel of fingers sails my flesh
In the depth of your eyes I find atonement
For the mortal follies of which I am blessed
In the tulip of your smile I find I'm lost
And the perils of past and future forgot.

Boys Hockey

A Tribute To A Team

...their parents, and the fine school they represent

Seldom in education do we see manifestation of the unique situation of the incredible achievement of the Marshfield Boys' Hockey Team, now Division I State Champions.

On October 28, 2005 at an informal gathering of players, a goal had been set to get to the Garden. This has been referred to as the "Garden '06 Speech" given by the Captain, Ryan Warsofsky in the presence of the players.

The many outside activities the team participated in from community service to team dinners, gave the team a shared sense of purpose and provided an incredibly strong foundation which sustained these fine young men when the whole team suffered the unspeakable loss of a beloved parent and colleague, Daniel Toomey. From this despair came the impetus and strength to rally support for the Toomey brothers, Brendan and Conor.

Call it what you may–determination, fortitude, demonstration of faith–these young men are a living example of the power of sustained efforts and demonstration of love by their parents, coaches, their loyal fans, the school as a whole, and ultimately, the entire town, including the police and fire departments who provided escort services to and from the Garden. Congratulations MHS Boys Hockey Team State Champs!!

(Excerpt from) Secondary Education
--By Brian Shacochis

There're obstacles ahead of you, pain, trials and tribulations but you'll overcome them in your due time with drive and determination.
See, I roamed these halls myself, y'all, and played some ball out back and around here, at about 15, they started calling me Shack.
I came in as an average student, but instead of getting better, I got worse.
By senior year I watched a buddy of mine take a ride in a hearse, and that hurts so I understand what you're going through; man, I know all about loss:
failure, low self-esteem? - shoot, growing up is no small cost.
Buy anything good that's worth having in life is never gonna come cheap;
Your boy Darwin had it right, my man, 'cause this life's not for the weak.
But the thing perhaps I'm most proud of is that I never did any drugs
And these teachers here will tell you, man, I hung out with some lugs.
And I'm just saying to let y'all know that you do have a choice and it's yours, like your character, demeanor, and your voice.
So don't assume you can't do things, assume you can if you try
In the process, your spirit will grow wings and will fly,
'cause everyday is another chapter in your own personal story so put the damn Playstation down and just go read Tuesdays With Morrie.

Work hard at what you do and always persevere
'cause your thought process is flawed if your motivation's fear.
You've got to practice active gratitude and be thankful for what you have Because taking things for granted will leave you crazy, nuts and mad.
The content of your character will equate to the direction of your future, so find yourself the best you can and choose a path that suits you.
And failure's fine, I'm serious, so long as it teaches you how to succeed, and what you want is cool and all, but nothing compared to what you need.
So follow your heart, make up your mind, and hunt down all your dreams
'cause your jaded, poor self-image is just not what it seems.
Savor the reflection in every puddle, and the juice in every berry –
That's all I ever wanted to teach you, the English was secondary.

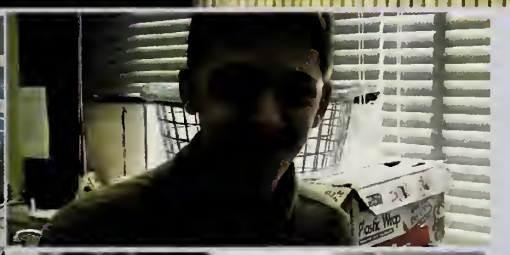
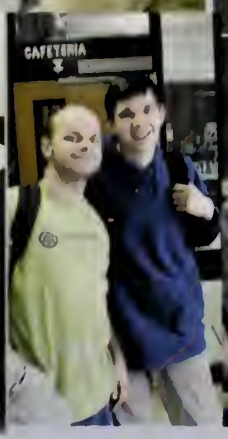
Yearbook





Can you take the time
To see beyond your reflection in the glass?
To take a glance at the world?
To watch it pass?
To see these are the happiest days of our lives
Through your tear glazed eyes.
Can you try to speak through your choked up throat?
To say a few words to sum it all up.
A few words about all the things that you felt
And the trials you were dealt.
Can you take the time
To pause right where you are?
To take a look back?
See you have come so far.
To ponder if where you're going
Is really where you ought to be.
Can you take the time
To say goodbye to your friends?
Walk up to your enemies and shake hands?
Now is the perfect time for you
To pursue all the things you always wished you could do.
Can you take the time
To remember all the words to the songs
That played in your mind?
And how you didn't see it then
But you did alright, looking back on it again.
It's never really been Too late to begin.

The halls of Marshfield High School. Several Juniors before the change from home room to second block.

The courtyard Before

The courtyard After

The Remembrance Courtyard was redone by Joey Rossi as an eagle project for him to obtain his rank of eagle. The courtyard features a new performing arts stage with various flower gardens. Picnic tables and a new gazebo structure will put the courtyard to maximum use by having concerts outside while lunch is served.

King of the Hill

When we were small,
we'd build forts on the hills and in the patches of wood enveloping our homes.

I'd battle you,
and you'd battle me.
You showed me,
how to grow up.

At sunset, we'd end
the day's wars
just as quickly
as we'd started them.

But I lied when I told you
I walked you home because
"It was on the way."
I'd stray from my path for you.

Well, my childhood friend,
It took 10 years
and you've grown up.
And I'm up here on our hill.
I've seen and done some things I'd never dreamed of.
And I haven't done a lot of things I said I would.
And now being up here, isn't so great.
You're not around,
and that was half the battle.
I guess I'm king of our old hill now, holding down the fort.
I miss you.

The Class Of 2006

We came together for the first time at Freshman Fun Night
We played volleyball, ate food, everything was just right.
That night we all got to know each other a little bit better
And it was an event that we'll always remember.

Sophomore Silly Night followed and who could forget the Sophomore Fashion Show?
It was a night we walked the red carpet and will forever know.
At sophomore Silly Night we played more games and had contests.
Everyone realized that night that our class was different from the rest.
At the Fashion Show we started new trends.
And it was a time we all bonded as friends.

Prom came with junior year and it was filled with elegance and so much more
And in our last year at Marshfield High School there is so much left in store.
We have our Senior Night Out and Senior Banquet ahead
Even after graduation it will never be the end.

We have become like a big family over the years
And that will never change, even as the end of high school nears
We have grown up so fast and made so many memories together
We'll all take different paths in life, but always remember-
The Class of 2006 is forever.

Class officers: Mike Ahern, Phil Vercollone, Kelly Sullivan, Elizabeth Walsh, Craig Power, Lyndsey McManus.

Class Advisors

MaryBeth Funder and Jeanine Smith

To the Class of 2006

I found it difficult to put my thoughts onto paper about how you have touched my life.
I wanted to find the perfect words of how these photographs in this yearbook should remind you of all the good times we had during your time at Marshfield High.
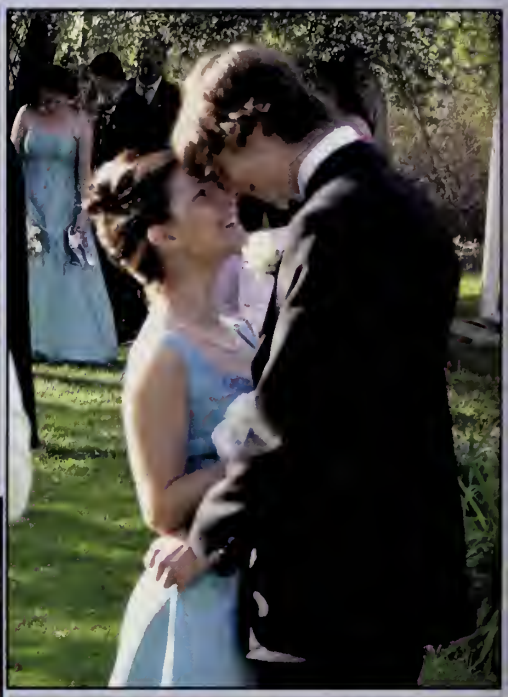
So I discovered the song "Photograph" from Nickelback...
When you look back please remember:

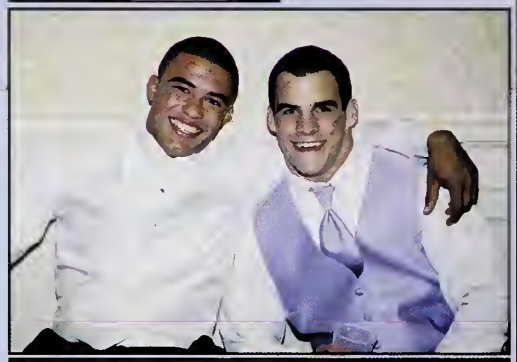
I miss that town
I miss those faces
I can't erase it
I can't replace it
I miss it now
I can't believe it
So hard to say
So hard to leave it

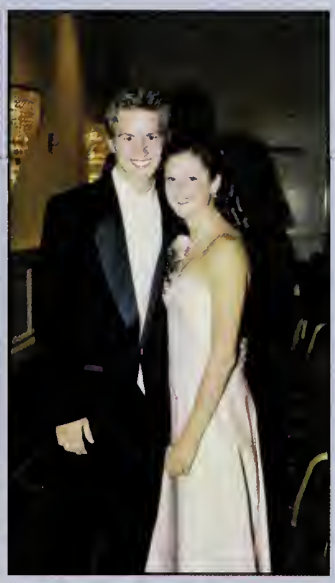
Hold onto the memories that you created together here at Marshfield High.
Look back at the photographs in this yearbook from time to time and smile.
I will miss all of you

Jeanine Smith and MaryBeth Funder

PROM 2005







Prom Court

Weeks and months we had prepared,
for one of the best nights of our lives.
And everyone was in great spirts
when May 13th arrived.
In years to come we'll go on with our lives and our carrers.
But all in all, not much compares to Prom our Junior Year.

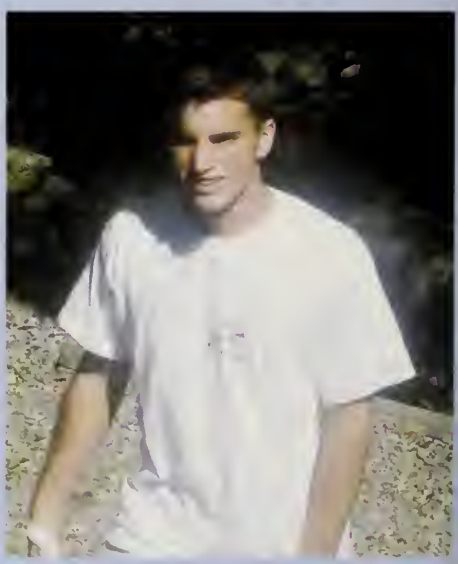
Senior Class Historian

Don't Want To Miss A Thing!

Climbing The Blue Hills Of Life...



We couldn't have asked for a nicer day for our Senior Class Meeting on the Mountain! On September 12th we kicked off our final year with a challenging but invigorating climb of Blue Hills. We heard inspirational words from Mike Ahearn, Class President, Class Advisor, Ms. Funder, and Principal Keuther.

"It was a great bonding experience, and we all had a fun time," said Liz Affa.

It's All About Attitude!

Senior Quote: "I hope life isn't a big joke, because I don't get it." -Jack Handy Memaries: There are way too memories in High School to list. I should probably just quit while I'm ahead. But I can never forget the lessons my friends have taught me. Gina Cullen has showed me the proper way in which to compose an open response for MCAS ("HANDLE WITH CARE") and Martha Bartlett has constantly demonstrated hammock-sitting procedures. Let's see, I remember (in no particular order and without any semblance of sentence structure): Frequent trips to Friendly's with Doug. Late nights ploying 'the word game' with Pat Ryan, Martha, Ben Benderson while discussing race relations and giving each other 'the look'. Crusading for the rights of flies everywhere with Tina Lagerstedt. Girls night with all of those absolutely insane girls (plus Allan Knowles and Chris Roy, who may or may not be male) Brant Rock mischief with Wendy Parkis, Laur Robertori, and other exhibitianists. European History class with Centorino, and asking the importont questions like: "Why does God moke our things?" and "What is the putting-out system?". Alwoys relying on the Bortlett family for food and transportatian, and being the third child. Hanging out with "us", which typically included Daug Felton, Dove McAleor, and Darren Fitzgerald. Bringing the corn with Chartruese. Weekend trips to Siam, chilling out with Jady ond eating solely with eight people. (No more, no less!) The monstrous game of Sardines/Manhunt with BC High boys who all bore a striking resemblance to Jesus and the Wendy's singalong that ensued Dangerous escapades in the Boys Bathroom with Stephonie Reynolds and Tina Logerstedt, and then subsequently being interrupted. Christmas time in 2004 and all the amozing time I spent with Doug Felton. "Kate, the gas pedal is stuck to the floor". "Okay". Representing the Floral Crew at Roche Bros. Delivering devastating slaps to Allan Knowles, who cowered away from my intimidating strength and slopping-prowess. "Allan Knowles is a girly-man!"-Himself. (He resents this) Marrying Sam Bartlett multiple times, and always, always, always taking the dog. Spain Trip '05, which included El Corte Ingles, Tapas Night, Hot-tubbing it with Yvette, learning how to trill my r's like a tractor, and chupo lo. Observing 'Sophie's Witness Day in Mr. Napoleon's class. Oh, and that time that I cured cancer and single-handedly saved the world. That was pretty cool.

Senior Quote: "Everyone love pudding!!!" My memories from high school ore not filled with numerous parties ond mo heodoches from all night drinking games. I wos never the popular kid ond never really geek or considered anti-social. Where did I fit, what were my memories? My memories consist of great friends that were kind and accepting. My best party was my own for the MHS Drama Club, and the only headache I got was from playing my music too loud in my car. I love my friends and will always remember them, for they are the guiding force in the decisions I make in life. I will always remember the late night Dungeons and Dragons sessions with D.S. and C.W. I will remember the late night movies with R.F. and C.C. I try to forget the late night study sessions for SAT's and for Finals (But those will always haunt me). I remember the Virginia Trip with the music department that was an experience that I'd never forget. Specifically I will remember D.S. taking a picture of me at three in the morning while in Virginia after our two a.m. fire alarm (he will pay). Finally, I will ALWAYS remember the wonderful friends I made in Drama Club. I'm not going to name names because everyone in drama club has contributed something special to my life. I have learned lessons of character and friendship that I will take with me forever. I guess you could say I owe my sanity to Drama Club, because I was never quite as happy as I was when I came back; and for that I thank the Drama Club.

Nicknames: Manny, Ze, The Hitman Vinnie Veiga E-mail Address: zmv818@gmail.com Activities: Wrestling Senior Quate: "Manny being Manny" (Seriously I can't think of anything else) Memaries: Twelve hour school days, lifting at 6 in the morning, school during the day, then wrestling until 6pm... No person should spend that much time in ane place, least of all Marshfield High Schaal. Wrestling's been fun though (well, maybe not fun, but... I don't knaw, its been good). Some days were better than others, and the Junior seasan wasn't nearly as satisfying as it could of been (Na OCL title, losing ta JOE FREAKING WOLFF) but hopefully senior year will have been much better by the time people read this. Other things. Chris thrawing me, that Super Mario Bros. video me, Matt, John, Pete, and Chris made for Spanish (i still have that, its hilarious), talking abaut trees and Jesus in the back of biology class, There was other stuff, too but i can't remember it. Erica said samething nice about me in her memories, so I'll say something about her... um... i like her laptop? Jk, she's awesome, i couldn't imagine having a better sister. She's always there to listen to me complain abaut useless crap like Edgar Renteria. My life wauld probably suck without her. J A few mare stuff off the top af my head: Hrivnak getting the whale class to yell "Manny" and wake me up, which I didn't appreciate, because i was very tired (thanks for reminding me, Stephanie). I remember falling asleep in 7th grade and the waking up with the whole class looking at me liked i died or samething... I sleep toa much in class. Joey Pronk is the greatest of all time. Yeah. Btw, to all the guys on the wrestling team, in fact to anyone I've ever knawn, whaever you are: you're the man (or woman). If I left anyone out, sarry, but if I don't finish this soan, Matt Hart will cut the rest off.

Peter James Woods

Date Written: October 5, 2005 Nicknames: Pete (not much for nicknames) E-Mail Address: pjw8101@yahoo.com Activities: I never did much after school, except far my paper route, which lasted fram February 1, 2003 ta July 29, 2005. I alsa draw all the time, every day. Ambitions: Since 1999, my cartoon series "The James Thomas Show" was famous by comics in "The Weathervane" at Summer Arts at Derby and sharing episodes I make at home with my brather, Conor, and Nick (and Mark Patch). So the next step is ta go to college and try to pursue a cartooning career. I REALLY would like to become the next Matt Groening (creator of "The Simpsons" and "Futurama"), Seth MacFarlane (creator of "Family Guy" and "American Dad"), Mike Judge. (creator af "Beavis and Butthead" and "King af the Hill"). The shows that are underlined are the shows I LOVE! And it would be so cool if James Thomas followed in their footsteps! In addition, I'd like to keep my room (clean) and get married and have a family. Just like what my family, immediate and extended, has done in the past. Senior Quote: "No matter how old you get, where you go, what yau do, who yau meet, where you live, you will still be the exact same person and never forget your past and never forget the best class ever!!!!." Memories: We all met an September 21, 1999 when Furnace Brook Middle School was just brand new. The only parts that were still being warked on are the courtyards, the auditorium, the gym, and the 8th grade wing. At that time, I didn't know ANYONE except everyone from Furnace Brook Elementary School. Some ananymaus classmates were talking to me! I never knew their names until June 2000. I started to know who A LOT of peaple are from 7th grade to now. Such activities we did altogether as the best class ever during FBMS and MHS are: The Scavenger Hunt (April 28- May 12, 2000), Field Day (June 14, 2001), Class Night (June 7, 2002), Freshman Fun Night (May 29, 2003), Sophomare Fashian Shaw (March 19, 2004), Sophamore Silly Night (June 10, 2004), the prom (May 13, 2005) and Meeting an the Mauntain (September 21, 2005). We all met an Blue Hills on the 6-year anniversary of meeting at Furnace Brook. What a really, really, pleasant caincidence! I think it's very, very important that all classmates stick together! I'd like that to happen after we graduate! I also think that all the teachers we had (including mine) should realize what the best class we really are! Fortunately, some teachers do! J I love you, Mum, Dad, Sean, Conor, my extended family, teachers, and classmates! You all know wha yau are!

Thanks

So many years you were right there by my side
And I never thought I'd have to say goodbye
I never thougt I'd have to leave
My best friends and family

(To My Friends)
I remember back when, we were young
I even remember the songs we'd sung
The best were the ones around Christmas time
About Batman, Robin, full of childish rhymes

I remember the games we used to play
And the famous words we would always say
"I'm not it" "Yes you are"
"You have cooties" "Give me back my car"

(To My Family)
I remember after school when I came home
I did my homework, and went out to roam
While you stayed inside and worried about me
And became happy, when I strolled in about three

You were always there when I needed to cry
You were always there to wipe the tears from my eyes
You were always there to tuck me in at night
And to keep the boogeyman out of sight

(Friends and Family)
Those were the days; I wish I was still there
But unfortunately I'm not, I'm finally here
I'm at that stage; the fork in the road
Trying to figure out which way should I go

ANYWAY

People are often unreasonable,
illogical & self-centered;
Forgive them anyway.

If you are kind,
people may accuse you of selfish,
ulterior motives;
Be kind anyway.

If you are successful,
you will win some false friends
and some true enemies:
Succeed anyway.

If you are honest and frank,
people may cheat you;
Be honest and frank anyway.

What you spend years building,
someone could destroy overnight;
Build anyway.

If you find serenity and happiness,
they may be jealous;
Be happy anyway.

The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow;
Do good anyway.

Give the world the best you have,
and it may never be enough;
Give the world the best
you've got anyway.

You see in the final analysis,
it is between you and God;
It was never between you and them anyway.

(Prayer by Mother Theresa)

GOOD LUCK STEPH, GREG & BOOP
WE LOVE YOU!!

Meaghan Mullis

One last "I forgot it at home" note
Look both ways before crossing the street
Always be cautious of strangers you meet.
We hope that you've learned that our guidance is true,
But just to be safe
We're coming with you!

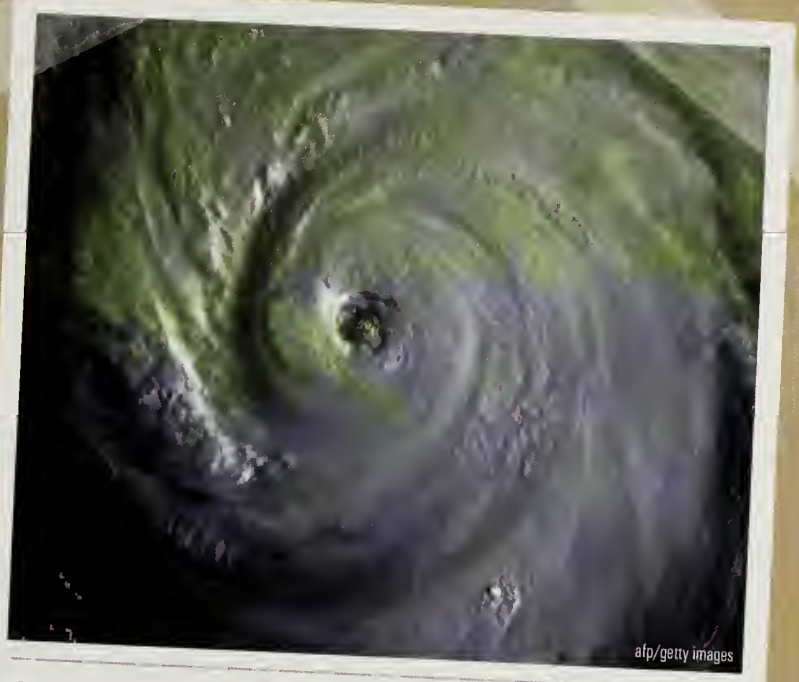
World Yearbook 2005-2006

A brutal and record-breaking Atlantic hurricane season saw seven storms pound the United States, devastating thousands of lives and causing more than $100 billion in damages. Hurricanes Katrina, Rita and Wilma were among the most intense, destructive and costly storms ever recorded.

This hurricane season included 27 named storms, 13 of which were hurricanes, seven were considered major and for the first time in recorded history, three reached Category 5 status.

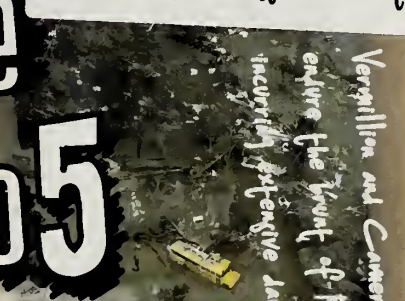


The Gulf Coast braces itself for Hurricane Katrina, the most catastrophic storm ever to strike the United States.

Residents make their way through the flooded streets of New Orleans to a shelter.

Hurricane Season '05

In late September, Hurricane Rita devastates areas of Florida, Texas and Louisiana.



Vermillion and Cameron Parish in Louisiana endure the brunt of Rita's tidal surge, incurring extensive damage.

American tourists wait for flights to return to the United States after Wilma strikes Mexico.

On October 23 a waterspout from the first feeder bands of Hurricane Wilma approaches Key West, Fla.

Hurricane Rita hits the Florida Keys on September 20.

The hurricane season made meteorological history by having the most named tropical cyclones ever recorded. For the first time, forecasters exhausted a list of 21 proper names and began using the Greek alphabet to name storms.

Reflections and Advice

Another year gone by Another graduating class;
Moments of laughs and cries
Thankfully, no more MCAS

What can I say about the class of '06?
How are you different from classes before?
Aside from the fact your spirit was sick
Many thanks to "Funder" and "The Doctor."

You'll remember the good times
And the miserable ones
The times that brought laughs
Others, no fun.

Nevertheless, MHS is now a memory.
But you could be like many of your teachers.
And be back to join the faculty!

You weren't my first group
But definitely made an impression
From Mike Aheorn's peep-show pep rally
To Duffy and Tossonori's ridiculous questions.

Teaching AP Euro
Was the high point of my day
Aside from having slackers
Like Leedham, DiMascio, and Shea

Nick Landry's dedication
Corrine Byrne's beautiful songs
Ali's, Lyndsay's, and Liz's sportsmanship
Frank's and CJ's humorous charm,
Will all be missed at MHS.

You'll miss the little things
Like popcorn chicken and "The Ramble Inn"
You won't miss the PDAs
Or sharing a building with freshmen.

Please came and visit
Keep us in mind
Be hard-working
But also be kind

You've became young adults
But still have much growing to do
Challenge yourself
And always follow through.

High School is over
Your future awaits
Whatever path you choose
Only you make it great.

Inspire, love, and seek out your passion
Share with others and always imagine,
How you can improve the world around you.

Good Luck Class of 2006.
